

Bono, Bono East and Ahafo Regional Office

GSA's Bono Regional Office Schools Female Tertiary Students on its Activities

Cross-section of the female tertiary school students

The Manageress of the Bono Regional Office of the Ghana Standards Authority (GSA), Xaviera Ulla Tawiah on Friday, February 2, 2024 gave a talk at the Sunyani Technical University's "Tertiary Women in Business" event. The event was organised by Evergreen Hive for about 200 tertiary women.

The programme aimed at fostering the entrepreneurial spirit among female students across various tertiary institutions in Ghana. Their training spans across critical topics; advanced digital marketing, crowd handling, branding and Business Start-up.

Present at the programme was the Dean of students for the University, Madam Vida Owusu Prempah.

Madam Ulla Tawiah gave a talk on GSA's mandate as a national standards and conformity assessment body. The participants were taken through the Authority's product and management system procedures.

Madam Tawiah also discussed with the participants processes involved in destination inspection and the Labelling requirement (LI 1541).

She took the participants through a comprehensive list of GSA's accredited laboratories offering testing services for a wide range of products.

