On Friday, February 2, 2024, the Ghana Standards Authority (GSA) held a Muslim and Christian thanksgiving Ceremony to celebrate God's faithfulness and protection throughout the past year.

The Christian Service was held at the Authority's premises and presided over by Bishop Clive Mould, A Bishop of Action Chapel International, whereas the Muslim Service was held at the University of Ghana Central Mosque which was led by Taufiq Abdulkadir and overseen by Imam Abubakari Baba.

The Service was attended by various staff and management members of the Authority including the Director-General, Professor Alex Dodoo.

The non-denominational thanksgiving service revolved around the theme "Give thanks to the Lord (Psalm 107:1)," drawing inspiration from various Bible verses, including Psalm 18, Psalm 85:1, and Psalm 67:7.

Mr. Joseph Asare, Acting Head of the IT department, opened the service with a heartfelt prayer and introduced Bishop Clive Mould, the Deputy Administrative Bishop of Action Chapel International.

Bishop Clive delivered a sermon on thanksgiving, emphasizing its significance as an expression of gratitude and praise for God's blessings. It served as a celebration of acknowledgment, forming a fundamental connection with God.

Reminding the congregation of their faith in Christ, Bishop Clive Mould assured them, "No one will bring you down because you have the oil on your head that will never run dry."

The thanksgiving service featured melodious songs from the GSA Musical team, led by Deputy Director-General (Conformity Assessment) Mr. Clifford Frimpong, creating an atmosphere of worship and praise.

During the service, the Deputy Director-Generals, Directors, Heads of departments, and the staff expressed their heartfelt gratitude to God for His mercies, guidance, and protection throughout the past year and sought His guidance for the year ahead.
